RE: Request to reinstate visitation privileges - visitor [your name], visiting [incarcerated person's full name], ID #[number]

Dear Warden / Visitation Coordinator:

My visitation privileges were restricted on [date] for the following stated reason: [reason given, if any]. I am respectfully requesting that my privileges be reinstated.

In support of this request: [explain briefly - for example, the time that has passed, your understanding of and commitment to the visiting rules, completion of any required steps, or circumstances that have changed].

If full reinstatement is not possible at this time, I ask that you consider a proportionate alternative, such as supervised or non-contact visits, or a defined date on which my eligibility will be reviewed.

Please provide your decision in writing, including any conditions that will apply. Thank you for considering this request.

Sincerely,

Policies, required forms and deadlines vary by state, agency and facility - always check the rules of the specific facility or agency first, use the official form where one exists, and consider consulting a qualified attorney.
